

Mr. Fassitt then moved to amend the said bill by adding the following additional section:

"And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Governor and Council hereafter to appoint a board of Managers equal to the number of the survivors originally constituted by the act of 1816, chapter 77, who shall have all the powers, and discharge all the duties conferred and enjoined by said act, and the present managers shall file their assent to this provision before receiving the appropriation herein provided;

Which having been read,

Mr. Carter of Montgomery moved to amend the said amendment, by adding after the word "who," in the 5th line, these words, "in conjunction with the present managers;"

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put on the adoption of the amendment as amended, and it was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Scott moved that the said bill be recommitted to the committee on lotteries.

On which the question was put and resolved in the affirmative.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to incorporate Prince Frederick town Academy, in Calvert county, passed at December session, 1832, chapter 246, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendment;"

Which amendment was read the first and second time by special order, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Steam Milling and Manufacturing company of Charles county, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments;"

Which amendments were read the first and second time by special order, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
